

The media needs to serve the public, and not private interests. I oppose more media consolidation and urge that you vote against it.